Recycled Reads

The Friends of the Orland Park Public Library maintain Recycled Reads, an ever-changing selection of gently-used books, audiobooks, CDs, and DVDs available for purchase, located in the northwest corner of the lobby. The proceeds from the sale of these low-priced books are donated to the Library to purchase a wide variety of materials, equipment and services for the Library.

Library Hours

Monday - Friday: 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Saturday: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sunday: 1 to 5 p.m.

The Friends of the Orland Park Public Library is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Q: Do you enjoy your public library?

Q: Do you appreciate the services it offers to our community?

Q: How can you show your support?

A: Become a Friend of the Orland Park Public Library!

Annual membership allows you to:

- Volunteer
- Voice your ideas and suggestions for the Friends organization.
- Gives you an opportunity to show your support for the Library and its services.

The Friends are directed by a Board of Trustees and officers. They are nominated from the membership at large, serve a two-year term, and meet three times a year. If you are interested in serving as a Trustee, please call Mary Adamowski at 708-428-5202.

The Friends:

- Volunteer at special events and open houses
- Maintain the Recycled Reads ongoing book sale
- Provide a paperback exchange at the Orland Park Metra stations for commuters
- Sell book bags and other items

...with the goal of raising funds to support Adult, Teen, and Youth programming, including the summer reading challenge.
