Recycled Reads

The Friends of the Orland Park Public Library maintain Recycled Reads, an ever-changing selection of gently-used books, audiobooks, Blu-rays, and DVDs available for purchase, located in the Recycled Reads room near the bottom of the main staircase. The proceeds from the sale of these low-priced materials are donated to the library to provide programming for patrons of all ages.

Library Hours

Monday - Friday: 9 a.m. - 9 p.m.

Saturday: 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Sunday: 1 - 5 p.m.

The Friends of the Orland Park Public Library is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Membership Information

14921 S. Ravinia Avenue • Orland Park, IL 60462
orlandparklibrary.org/about-us/friends-of-the-library/

A small $5.00 donation buys you one whole year of membership!

An annual Friends of the Library membership allows you to:

- Volunteer at special events and open houses
- Voice your ideas and suggestions for the Friends organization
- Have an opportunity to show your support and appreciation for the Library and its services to the community
- Help to maintain the Recycled Reads ongoing book sale
- Provide a paperback exchange at the Orland Park Metra stations for commuters
- Sell book bags and other items

...with the goal of raising funds to support Adult, Teen, and Youth programming, including the summer reading challenge.

Friends of the Library Board of Trustees:

The Friends are directed by a Board of Trustees and officers. They are nominated from the membership at large, serve a two-year term, and meet regularly throughout the year. If you are interested in serving as a Trustee, please call Anthony Andros at (708) 428-5203.
